

ALBERTA GOLF ANNOUNCES STAFF CHANGES

Alberta Golf is excited to announce the following staff changes effective January 7, 2009:

JACK LANE – Having just earned his Bachelor of Applied Business and Entrepreneurship Degree from Mount Royal College, Jack comes on board as our new Customer Service Representative taking over for Rod McLachlan whose contract concluded on December 31, 2008. Jack will be transitioning to his new role after working with Alberta Golf last year as the association’s Membership/Tournament Intern. As the Customer Service Representative, Jack will be responsible for leading the RCGA Loyalty Card program; managing the association’s volunteer base; and assisting marketing and tournament initiatives. Jack can be reached at 403-236-4616 or by email at jack.lane@albertagolf.org.

DOMENIC NOCERA – comes on board with Alberta Golf as the 2009 Membership and Tournament Intern as he works to completing his Bachelor of Applied Business and Entrepreneurship Degree at Mount Royal College. In this position, Dom will be responsible for leading the delivery of the association’s Public Player Club program as well as assisting the implementation of Alberta Golf’s wide ranging membership and tournament programs. Dom can be reached at 403-236-4616 or by email at domenic.nocera@albertagolf.org.
